

Supervisory Committee Position – Job Posting

January 2021

At Rivermark Community Credit Union, service to our members is at the heart of everything we do. As a paid supervisory committee member, you will provide independent, executive level oversight on behalf of the 90,000 members who bank with us by ensuring the sound governance of the credit union. This oversight includes ensuring the credit union meets all required financial reporting objectives, reviewing and evaluating internal practices and procedures to safeguard members' assets, and managing the annual financial audit.

We are committed to fostering, cultivating and preserving a rich culture of diversity, equity and inclusion that supports and celebrates a broad range of voices and encourages new and bold perspectives. We are seeking women, BIPOC, LGBTQ, and candidates from other under-represented groups to apply.

Successful candidate qualifications:

- Understanding of the credit union difference, Rivermark's membership and community impact.
- Knowledge of credit union products, financial reporting, internal controls, and utilization of data in decision making.
- Strong planning, time management and execution skills.
- Commitment to continuing education and training specifically in applicable laws and regulations.
- Willingness to challenge the status quo; ability to critically examine and question issues, reports, and plan strategically.
- Strong communication skills and willingness to actively participate and contribute in committee and board of director activities.
- Demonstrated experience in accounting, auditing principles, financial institution supervision or business management, or willingness to engage in training opportunities to become knowledgeable in these areas as they apply to credit unions.
- Knowledge of financial ALM, compliance and regulations, cyber security, data security, disaster recovery, and fraud mitigation is preferred.
- Live/work in the Oregon counties within the field of membership.

If you are a forward-thinking, strategic leader who is committed to our mission of "Building financial empowerment together", we welcome you to join Rivermark's Supervisory Committee.
